DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a) because they fail to show the details disclose in page 10, line 20+ as described in the specification. Any structural detail that is essential for a proper understanding of the disclosed invention should be shown in the drawing. MPEP § 608.02(d). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. The use of the trademark LYCRA has been noted in this application (page 7, line 22). It should be capitalized wherever it appears and be accompanied by the generic terminology.

Although the use of trademarks is permissible in patent applications, the proprietary nature of the marks should be respected and every effort made to prevent their use in any manner which might adversely affect their validity as trademarks.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claims 1, 9, 15 and 16, the following limitations "first frusto-conically shaped protrusion", "a second frusto-conically shaped protrusion", "a second recess", "a second liquid discharge passage", and "a second plurality of air discharge passages" are not properly disclosed in detail in the specification and drawing. In claim 15, line 9, "a base" is not properly disclosed in detail in the specification and drawing. In claim 15, line 7, "a module body" should read --the module body--.

5. For the purpose of this Office action, the claims will be examined as best understood by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1-4, 8, 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Scholl (U.S. Patent No. 4,969,602).

Scholl discloses a nozzle 18 comprising a nozzle body 134 with a first side 102 and a second side 104, a liquid supply port 57 and an air supply port 95, a module body 14, a first frusto-conically shaped protrusion 114, a recess 116, a liquid discharge passage 109, and a plurality of air discharge passages 118 (see figures 2 and 3).

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

8. Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Saidman (U.S. Patent No. 6,435,425).

Saidman discloses a nozzle 110 comprising a nozzle body 18 with a first side 38 and a second side 40, a liquid supply port 46 and an air supply port 56/58, a module body 14, a first frusto-conically shaped protrusion 42, a recess 72/74, a liquid discharge passage 42a, a plurality of air discharge passages 60/62/64/66 (see figure 3), a second recess (not numbered), a second frusto-conically shaped protrusion 142, a second liquid discharge passage 148, and a second plurality of air discharge passages 160/162/164/166 that are positioned in a square pattern (see figure 9).

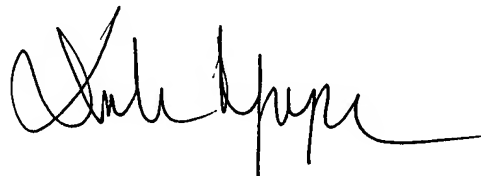

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The following patents are cited to show the art with respect to a nozzle for discharge one liquid filament: Allen et al., Meyer, and Gressett, jr. et al.
